AREAS OF INTEREST

a) Research

- Digital Storytelling
- Digital Literacy / Information Literacy
- Qualitative Research
- Information Systems Adoption and Use
- Information Management / Knowledge Management
- Information Behaviour / Web Information Seeking
- Community Informatics / Electronic Government

b) Teaching

- Qualitative Research Methods
- Electronic Business
- Project Management
- Information Systems in Business

c) Consulting

- Strategic Planning
- Graduate Program Appraisals
- Textbook Development / Courseware Tool Development
- Web Site / Portal Design Evaluation
- Knowledge Management

HONOURS

- Best Education Paper Award, Australasian Conference on Information Systems (ACIS), 2010.
- Highly Commended Award, Emerald Literati Club, Online Information Review, 2003.
- American Society for Information Science (ASIS) ISI Doctoral Dissertation Proposal Award, 1999.

CONTRIBUTIONS TO TEACHING PRACTICE

a) Pedagogic Innovation and/or Development of Technology-Enhanced Learning

- Incorporation of online learning activities in courses taught.
- Development and use of a full-suite of online tools for teaching (e.g., Adobe Connect, Voice-Thread, Moodle, Avenue2Learn, Lynda.com, WebEx, Camtasia). This includes conversion of 4KF3 "Project Management" to an online/blended format in Spring/Summer 2017 and use of McGraw-Hill's Connect "Smartbook" technologies in Fall 2017.

b) Leadership in Delivery of Educational Programs

- Led an e-Learning working group at the DeGroote School of Business to establish a strategic direction for online learning at the School, April 2017 to Dec 2017.
- Designed and delivered workshops and training seminars on research ethics at McMaster University, July 1, 2011 to June 30, 2015.
- Director of the Ph.D. Program in Business Administration, DeGroote School of Business, July 1, 2006 to June 30, 2011.
- Acting Director of Undergraduate Commerce Programs, DeGroote School of Business, July 1, 2005 to June 30, 2006.

c) Course/Curriculum Development

- Designed and developed from scratch all courses taught (see above for a list of lifetime courses taught). Notable course development was the online graduate course LIM501 for the Marshall School of Business at the University of Southern California in 2013 where Detlor worked with instructional designers from Embanet to design and develop a rich, interactive online course comprising several multi-media components and synchronous & asynchronous instruction.

d) Development/Evaluation of Educational Materials and Programs

- Co-authored 3 editions of a textbook ("Business-Driven Information Systems") for use in teaching Commerce 2KA3.
- Evaluated textbooks and textbook proposals:
 - Textbook proposal review for McGraw-Hill Ryerson, April 2005, Oct 2006.
 - Textbook proposal review for Springer, 2004.
 - Textbook proposal review for Routledge, 2003.
 - Textbook reviews for Scarecrow Press, 2000, 2003 to 2004.
- Evaluated courses:
 - A Project Management course (IOPM 431 / BUSEB 410), Al-Ahram Canadian University, Cairo, Egypt, March 2008.
- Evaluated graduate programs:
 - Proposed MSc. in Management program, University of Western Ontario, London, Ontario, Canada, Jan/Feb 2010.
 - Proposed Doctorate in Business Administration program, Townsend School of Business, Dowling College, Long Island, New York, USA, April 2010.
